Chief of Police
Matthew Kunz

The Jackson Township Police Department is looking for the highest caliber people to represent and serve our community. Jackson Township is an equal opportunity employer serving our residents since 1946. Jackson is a growing community and there will be an anticipated need to hire and train new officers well into the future.

The Jackson Township Police Department is a civil service Department with a residency requirement located in Ocean County NJ. The significance of this is that in order to become a full time Jackson Township police officer you must both live in Jackson Township and take a civil service examination. Please visit www.nj.gov.csc for more information regarding the testing process. Additional information about the different routes available to become a police officer can be located at www.oceancountypoliceacademy.org. Additional questions can be directed to jpdrecruiting@jacksontwpnj.net
